ST. GLUVIAS, PENRYN WEEKLY NOTICES

SAINT LUKE THE EVANGELIST SUNDAY 18TH OCTOBER 2020

9:15am – Service of the Word

[Next: Sunday 18th October @9:15am –Trinity 20]

We strongly advise that face coverings should be worn by all those attending a place of worship, including ministers, worshippers, staff, volunteers, contractors and visitors, where there may be other people present; remembering that they are mainly intended to protect other people, not the wearer, from coronavirus COVID-19 and that they are not a replacement for physical distancing and regular hand washing. You are kindly reminded that people must not sit in groups of more than six when attending any services in church.

Collect

Almighty God,
you called Luke the physician, whose praise is in the gospel, to be an evangelist and physician of the soul: by the grace of the Spirit and through the wholesome medicine of the gospel, give your Church the same love and power to heal; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: a reading from Isaiah 35:3-6

Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees.

Say to those with fearful hearts, 'Be strong, do not fear!

Here is your God - he will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you.'

"Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then the lame will leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy.

For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert.

Second Reading: a reading from the Gospel of St Luke 10:1-9

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go.

He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.

Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road.

Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house!' And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you.

Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house.

Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'

In the diocese cycle of prayer: Anti-Slavery Day & Hospital Sunday: Heavenly Father, who sees the unseen and notices the unnoticed, help each of us to hear the Hidden Voices of those who pray for release from slavery and exploitation, so that we may give ourselves more fully to the service of your saving love, and be strengthened together as agents of your healing and hope, through Jesus Christ, who himself came to serve as a slave, so as to bring freedom and grace to all. Amen.

In these anxious times of Coronavirus infections increasing, we continue to give thanks for the incredible work of the NHS and front-line care staff. We pray God's blessing, protection and strength for them and their families over the coming months.
