

Weekly Notices:

Holy Communion – Mindful of government guidance, Communion will be administered in one kind only.

Therefore, when invited to do so, each communicant should come forward and stand behind the line, extend their hands to receive Holy Communion, with face covering in place. They should then lower or unloop the face covering, consume the consecrated bread, and then replace the face covering before moving back to their place in the congregation.

There will be no prayer as communion is distributed.

LYCiG (Leading Your Church into Growth)

Last week we relaunched the 'Leading Your Church into Growth' sessions, in partnership with St Mylor.

There will be 3 more sessions Tuesday 27th October and 10th & 24th November. Sessions are online (Zoom), starting at 5.15pm and finishing by 7pm with a 15 minutes break. Why not join us? Please speak with Rev'd Amanda if you are interested in joining this small group.

Morning Prayer - Thursdays @8.30am via Zoom

Please inform Rev'd Amanda if you wish to join these sessions, so that we can ensure you have the necessary invite. No worries if you do not have a computer, as you can now join in over the phone. Please collect a prayer sheet from the table by the door before leaving.

All Souls Day - Please check the list on the table near the door for the names of people that will be remembered at the service. We encourage those of you who can, to attend this service and to offer up prayers for loved ones.

NB: Any additional names should be passed to Rev'd Amanda or Jason by Sunday 1st November.

Remembrance Sunday - Sunday 8th November

As there will be no Civic parade this year, the names of people lost in conflict of war will be remembered during the 9:15am Communion Service.

Children's Society - Please return your collection boxes by Mid-November to Paul Campbell or leave them on the table at the back of church. Anyone wishing to sponsor this charity are asked to speak with Paul.

Our News - October edition is available online to read. Copies can be found on the church website along with the latest pew sheet.

NB: Please inform Jason of any notices for the pew sheet by noon on Thursday

Post Communion Prayer

God of all grace, your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your true and living bread; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen

Bible Sunday Message 2020: Reading The Bible With The Heart

*The Word of God is a living person,
"Someone you can touch with your hands,
and hear with your ears,
and see with your own eyes."
(1 John 1:1)*

BIBLE SUNDAY (LAST SUNDAY OF TRINITY) SUNDAY 25TH OCTOBER 2020

9:15am – Holy Communion

[Next: Sunday 1st November @9:15am –All Saints Sunday]

We strongly advise that face coverings should be worn by all those attending a place of worship, including ministers, worshippers, staff, volunteers, contractors and visitors, where there may be other people present; remembering that they are mainly intended to protect other people, not the wearer, from coronavirus COVID-19 and that they are not a replacement for physical distancing and regular hand washing. You are kindly reminded that people must not sit in groups of more than six when attending any services in church.

Collect

Blessed Lord, who caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: a reading from Nehemiah 8:

All the people gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had given to Israel.

Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month.

He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law.

Ezra the teacher of the Law stood on a high wooden platform built for the occasion. So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law.

Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our LORD; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

The Levites calmed all the people, saying, "Be still, for this is a holy day. Do not grieve." Then all the people went away to eat and drink, to send portions of food and to celebrate with great joy, because they now understood the words that had been made known to them.

Second Reading: a reading from Colossians 3.12-17

Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.

Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts. And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

The Gospel according to Matthew 22:34-46

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him.

"Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment.

And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: "What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David."

He said to them, "How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet"'? If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?"

No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

All Souls Day - Monday 2nd November @10am Said Mass during which we will offer in prayer the names of loved ones. Please do try to support this service.

Churchyard Maintenance - Saturday 7th November (9am 12 noon). If you can spare some time to help sweep up the leaves and tidy foot paths (in a socially distanced fashion) from outside of church it would be appreciated.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world. Particularly for persecuted Christians.

For deliverance from Coronavirus and those communities impacted by COVID-19 throughout the world. We pray for the healthcare workers who are caring for them, as well as civil authorities and all those involved in assisting patients and in containing the spread of the virus.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For those fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world. For an end to the violence in Gaza and Israel.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

For those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially:

Geoffrey Philpott, Christine Martin, Edna Lytle, Kevin Jose, Rob Coward, Ruby Jeffrey, Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, David Lydford, Annie Firth, Gillian Cable and Chris.

In the diocese cycle of prayer: Bible Sunday

Father, we pray for the Cornish Christmas Giving Catalogue and the charities that it supports. This year has been a difficult year for people across Cornwall and we pray that through this catalogue funds will be raised to help charities support people in need across the county. We also thank you for the volunteers and workers who make these things possible. Amen.
