Third Sunday of Lent 7th March 2021 (Online worship)

Collect:

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

First Reading: Exodus 20:1-17

Then God spoke all these words: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me.

You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me, but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments.

You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

Remember the Sabbath day, and keep it holy.

Six days you shall labour and do all your work. →

But the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God; you shall not do any work--you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns.

For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and consecrated it.

Honour your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

You shall not murder. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour.

You shall not covet your neighbour's house; you shall not covet your neighbour's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour.

Second Reading: From the Gospel according to John 2:13-22

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables.

Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.

He told those who were selling the doves, "Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!"

His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me." The Jews then said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?"

Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews then said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?"

But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered → that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

These are challenging times indeed but our clergy and churches are doing everything they can to make sure all our communities stay connected and cared for.

We may all be sitting in our homes, possibly fearful, certainly pondering on how we got where we are so quickly, but there are many ways to join in and worship collectively, even though we are all apart. From lighting a candle in your window and joining in prayers at a set time each day, to flipping open the laptop and clicking on links to take you to streamed church services.

The Diocese of Truro have produced a list of services online and other useful resources which can viewed on this website <https://trurodiocese.org.uk/live-streaming-services-2021/> are asking congregations in the Deanery, if they could contribute towards the project to supply school children locally with the necessary laptops needed for home schooling during the pandemic.

CAP – Christian’s Against Poverty

If you are able to help, you are asked to contact Rev’d Amanda or Jackie Bennett, Centre Manager 0737 66 55 711 (Mon & Tues 9am – 5pm)

Prayers and Intercessions Workshop

Thursday 22nd April on Zoom for those leading intercessions?

If you are interested, please inform Rev’d Amanda.

Fairtrade Fortnight 22 Feb – 7 March

<https://www.fairtrade.org.uk/choose-the-world-you-want/>

Farmers behind our food are on the front line of the climate crisis. But there’s hope. Join our global community during Fairtrade Fortnight 2021 for a free festival of online events and activities to entertain, educate and inspire us all to choose the world we want to see...

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world. Particularly for persecuted Christians.

For deliverance from Coronavirus and those communities both locally and nationally impacted by the pandemic throughout the world. We pray for the healthcare workers, now that the roll out of a vaccine has started, as well as civil authorities and all those involved in assisting patients and in containing the spread of the virus.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For those fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world. For an end to the violence in Gaza and Israel. For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

For those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially:

Geoffrey Philpott, Christine Martin, Edna Lytle, Kevin Jose, Rob Coward, Ruby Jeffrey, Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, David Lydford, Annie Firth, Gillian Cable, David Kelland, Claire Coombes, Roderick & Jackie Dare, Clive Hooper, Chris and Rev’d Amanda.

Recently departed: Shirley Pascoe RIP
[Funeral – Thursday 11th March]

Those who years mind:

Thomas Gill,
Gladys Woodward (11th).

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

DEANERY PLANNING Please pray for all those involved in deanery planning: Living and Loving God, the God of all our journeying, we give you thanks and praise that you are always ‘On the Way’ with us, walking step by step along the pilgrim path. God within us, God beside us, God behind us, God before us. New-life giving, energy-breathing God, the God who loves to surprise us, open our hearts, our minds, our lives to all the new possibilities that will lie ahead on the way in the months and years to come.

Help us to listen together to your Spirit’s voice, calling, “This is the way – walk in it.” Amen.

ANGLICAN

Anglican Communion: 3rd Sunday of Lent - Province de L’Eglise Anglicane Du Congo.

Prayers during Lent:

In holiness and reverence, let us pray to the Lord of the Church of all creation.

Keep you Church secure from the dangers of worldliness and greed... Give grace to your ministers, to preach the Gospel of Christ and to fulfil your commandments both in their words and their lives.

Pity the world where ignorance and prejudice often rule... Give true wisdom to all in authority... Pardon and cleanse the individuals and organisations whose goodness has been corrupted by love of gain.

Bless our families and keep them in purity of faith and righteousness of living... Strengthen those in our community who have responsibility for teaching and training, that they may give leadership in the way you have commanded.

Have mercy on those who suffer because they have fallen into evil ways... Restore them to the freedom that is found in Christ alone... Comfort and relieve the victims of lust, dishonesty and violence.

We pray for those who have died in the body, that they may be raised in Christ... Bring them to the joy of your heavenly Temple, where worship is perfect and eternal.

We pray that we may be worthy to worship in the Temple of the Lord.
Amen

NB: Please inform Jason of any notices for the pew sheet by noon on Thursday
