Easter Day

4th April 2021

*Alleluia. Christ is risen.
He is risen indeed. Alleluia.*

Collect:

Lord of all life and power, who through the mighty resurrection of your Son overcame the old order of sin and death to make all things new in him: grant that we, being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ, may reign with him in glory; to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might, now and in all eternity. Amen

First Reading: Acts 10:34-43

Then Peter began to speak to them: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.

You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ--he is Lord of all.

That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced:

how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead.

All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

The Gospel according to John 20:1-18

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb.

So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him."

Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first.

He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself.

Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

Then the disciples returned to their homes. But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet.

They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him."

When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus.

Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away."

Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher).

Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

Dear Friends,

We are delighted to welcome you back to church for Easter. We hope that your time with us today will be a pleasing experience, as we together celebrate the good news

*'Alleluia. Christ has Risen.
He has Risen indeed. Alleluia'.*

Mindful of the need to protect everyone, you are reminded that face covering are to remain worn during mass and that everyone should sanitise their hands when entering and before leaving the church.

If it is your wish to receive communion, which will be given in one kind only, we kindly ask that you sanitise your hands again before receiving. At which point we ask that you remove your face covering whilst walking back to your seat, consume and reattach it.

We are still unable to sing any hymns, but we hope that the music played will help lift your spirits.

However you choose to celebrate Easter this year, we hope it will be enjoyable with the reassurance of God's blessing.

Weekly Prayer

Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world. Particularly for persecuted Christians.

For deliverance from Coronavirus and those communities both locally and nationally impacted by the pandemic throughout the world. We pray for the healthcare workers, now that the roll out of a vaccine has started, as well as civil authorities and all those involved in assisting patients and in containing the spread of the virus.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For those fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world. For an end to the violence in Gaza and Israel.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

For those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially: Geoffrey Philpott, Christine Martin, Edna Lytle, Kevin Jose, Rob Coward, Ruby Jeffrey, Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, David Lydford, Annie Firth, Gillian Cable, David Kelland, Claire Coombes, Roderick & Jackie Dare, Clive Hooper and Chris.

Recently departed:

Those who years mind:

Graham Dash (20th March)
Phyllis Thompson (4th),
Michael Simcock Pr. (5th),
John Serpell (6th). Kenneth Jewell (7th), Ada Thomas (9th).

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

EASTER SUNDAY We praise you and we bless you, our risen Lord Jesus, King of glory, for in your resurrection the power of love breaks open the earth and frees life from death. As the angel rolled away the stone from the prison of the tomb, so release those imprisoned by life's misfortunes. To you, Lord Jesus, whose life brings surprises beyond our wildest expectations, be honour and glory, now and for ever. Amen

Anglican Communion: Pray for the peace of Jerusalem.

Prayers for Easter

Let us pray to the Father who raised his son to life that we might live for ever in him.

Strengthen your Church to the Body of Christ at work in the world...Heal our divisions and imperfection, make whole this visible body so that it may truly reflect his glorious Body...Give grace to ministers of the Gospel in proclaiming the message of the Resurrection.

We pray for the joy of the Resurrection may be known throughout the world, that those who are ignorant of the love of Christ may feel his presence and share his risen life...May all human endeavour become part of the new creation and the life without end.

Give grace this Easter time to heal the wounds of differences among our families, friends and neighbours...by the offering and acceptance of pardon where there has been wrong, may we know together the fullness of the Easter life.

Grant to all who suffer the knowledge of where true healing is to be found...Heal the hurt and broken bodies, give peace to the troubled minds, restore hope to the grieved and anxious spirits...Lead all human sorrow through the pain of the dying Christ to the joy of his Resurrection.

Risen with Christ and filled with new life, we pray as his people on earth.
Amen

Prayers and Intercessions Workshop
Thursday 22nd April on Zoom for those leading intercessions?
If you are interested, please inform Rev'd Amanda.

*Christ yesterday and today,
The beginning and the end,
Alpha and Omega.*

*All time belongs to him,
