Low Sunday

11th April 2021

Alleluia. Christ is risen.
He is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Collect:

Almighty Father,
you have given your only Son to die for our sins and to rise again for our justification: grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness that we may always serve you in pureness of living and truth; through the merits of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reading: Acts 4:32-35

Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common.

With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.

There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold.

They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

The Gospel according to John 20:19-31

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you."

After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came.

So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you."

Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe."

Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"

Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book.

But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

In the diocese cycle of prayer: A PRAYER FOR OUR SCHOOLS

Heavenly Father, we give you thanks for the work of all schools and colleges across Cornwall and for the extraordinary way in which staff have 'gone the extra mile' this past year to help support children and young people in their learning in the most difficult of circumstances. We pray that you would renew strength and hope for staff and students alike, and that you would bless and encourage all our school communities this coming summer term, especially those year groups preparing for significant transitions. Amen

Anglican Communion: Pray for the Church of the Province of the Indian Ocean.

Prayers for Second Sunday of Easter

Let us pray in faith to the Father who raised his Son from the dead.

Increase the faith of the Church, dispersing doubts and fears that hold us back from complete trust in you...Heal divisions among Christians, making all of one heart and soul in faith to proclaim the power of the Resurrection.

Break through the closed doors of human hearts with the joy of the Risen Christ...Make the desire for sharing and co-operation prevail over selfishness and greed...Bring peace to the troubled places of the world.

May the spirit of love dwell among our families, friends and neighbours ...Admitting where we have offended, let us live in harmony with all.

Have mercy on those whose faith is clouded by doubt and who walk in darkness...Restore them to the full joy of your salvation and give them peace.

Confident in the power of Christ in whom we have eternal life, we pray in his name. Amen
