

Weekly Notices

3rd Sunday of Easter 18th April 2021

*Alleluia. Christ is risen.
He is risen indeed. Alleluia.*

Collect:

Almighty Father,

who in your great mercy gladdened the disciples with the sight of the risen Lord: give us such knowledge of his presence with us, that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life and serve you continually in righteousness and truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reading: Acts 3:12-19

When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, "You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk?"

The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him.

But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses.

And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

"And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers.

In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer.

Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out.

The Gospel according to

Luke 24:36b-48

While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost.

He said to them, "Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts?"

Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have."

And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?"

They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence.

Then he said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you--that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled."

Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

You are witnesses of these things.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world. Particularly for persecuted Christians.

For deliverance from Coronavirus and those communities both locally and nationally impacted by the pandemic throughout the world. We pray for the healthcare workers, now that the roll out of a vaccine has started, as well as civil authorities and all those involved in assisting patients and in containing the spread of the virus.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For those fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world. For an end to the violence in Gaza and Israel.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

For those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially: Geoffrey Philpott, Christine Martin, Edna Lytle, Kevin Jose, Rob Coward, Ruby Jeffrey, Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, David Lydford, Annie Firth, Gillian Cable, David Kelland, Claire Coombes, Roderick & Jackie Dare, Clive Hooper and Chris.

Recently departed: HRH The Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh.

We pray for all who mourn following the death of a loved one, especially Her Majesty the Queen, The Prince of Wales and all of the Royal Family.

Those who years mind:

Edith Stevens (19th), Hilary Hodge (21st), Kenneth Clook, Earnest Ray (22nd), Annie Perskins (23rd) & Joyce Dash (24th)

In the diocese cycle of prayer: DIOCESAN SYNOD ELECTIONS
Holy God, we give you thanks that you call your people to service and to leadership, raise up among us we pray, faithful servants and leaders for this time. Give them your wisdom, a vision of your hope, and the gifts of gentleness and courage. We ask this in the name of the one we follow, who came to serve, and into whose likeness we would grow, Jesus Christ.

Amen

Anglican Communion: Pray for The Church of Ireland.

Prayers for Third Sunday of Easter

For the Church and for all the people, let us pray to God, present among us now and always.

Rejoicing in the saving death and wonderful Resurrection of Christ, we seek the spirit of true repentance for sins committed...Open the minds of your ministers, and give them deeper understanding of the good news which they preach.

Look with compassion on the world where the innocent still suffer and authority is often unjust...Give wisdom to those who rule over others, and lead them into the way of compassion and love.

Grant that we shall know the presence of Christ in our families and among our friends...May he always be the unseen guest at our meals, so that we may welcome others in his name.

Have mercy on all who suffer from the ignorance and malice of power misused...Strengthen all who are persecuted for their witness to the truth.

We give thanks for the departed who are lifted up with Christ to eternal life...May they rejoice in his risen and ascended glory.

With awe and reverence but in confidence, we offer our prayers.
Amen

The Light of God surrounds us;
The Love of God enfolds us;
The Power of God protects us;
The Presence of God watches over us;
Wherever we are, God is.

NB: Please inform Jason of any notices for the pew sheet by noon on Thursday
