7th Sunday of Easter

(Sunday after Ascension Day)
16th May 2021

*Alleluia. Christ is risen.
He is risen indeed. Alleluia.*

Collect:

*O God the King of glory,
you have exalted your only Son
Jesus Christ with great triumph
to your kingdom in heaven:
we beseech you, leave us not comfortless, but send your Holy Spirit to strengthen us and exalt us to the place where our Saviour Christ is gone before,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.*

Amen

Reading: Acts 1:15-17, 21-26

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred twenty persons) and said,

"Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus -- for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry."

So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us--one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection."

So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias.

Then they prayed and said, "Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place."

And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

The Gospel according to John 17:6-19

"I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word.

Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me.

I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours.

All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them.

And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.

While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled.

But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves.

I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.

I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one.

They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.

Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world.

And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.

Weekly Notices Cont.:

APCM - Today after Mass.

If you have not already, please do collect a printed copy of the general report and a breakdown of the finances for the past year. Please remain seated so the meeting can commence.

Vacancies for PCC members and Churchwardens

At our APCM today we are going to have vacancies for

2 Churchwarden roles and several on our PCC.

Churchwardens have a vital ministry in supporting the Priest in his or her duties and in the life and growth of the church as a flourishing Christian community.

Therefore please prayerfully consider whether you may be called to this ministry - sometimes the responsibility of taking on the role as one person may seem daunting but we can also all work together to support you by sharing out some of the jobs involved amongst us. Likewise, the work of the PCC is essential to our smooth running and growth as a church and your opportunity to have a say in both the way in which the church is run and plans for our future.

If you would like an informal chat about either of these roles and to see what is involved then please do contact me on 01326 318059. Many thanks, Rev'd Amanda

In the diocese cycle of prayer:
FOR THY KINGDOM COME (ASCENSION DAY - PENTECOST, 13 - 23 MAY) Steadfast God, redirect our lives and redirect the life of the world. Help us to live in peace with each other and with the planet. And today help us to tread lightly on the earth, praying for others that we may all find for ourselves the way of being human that God shows us in Jesus. Give us the chance to start again. To turn around. Adapted from Thy Kingdom Come Prayer Journal, by Stephen Cottrell, ++York. He writes: "The COVID-19 pandemic has hit every area of our lives: where we can go, whom we can see, how we can worship. In the time between Ascension Day and Pentecost, Thy Kingdom Come is a gift to refresh our faith, especially if we felt isolated from our community or our Church during this difficult time. Amen

Anglican Communion: Pray for the Anglican Church of Korea.

Prayers for Seventh Sunday of Easter
That all our lives may be sanctified in the truth, let us pray to the Lord.

We pray that your Church may be committed to the needs of the world, but never conformed to the world...We pray that those you have called to your service may be strong in the faith of Christ and given power to reveal his love.

Be with all who must make decisions that will affect our lives...Give wisdom to those who appoint or elect the positions of authority, guiding them with your Holy Spirit to seek the common good.

Bless us, our families and friends and colleagues in the decisions, both small and great, which we must make in our daily lives...Unite us in the love that makes us your own, and keep us from all evil.

Have mercy on any who have broken faith, betraying those who trusted them...Restore them in your mercy to the life of love that they have forsaken...Guide us where we can bring relief to any who have lost direction through the distress of misplaced trust.

Since our joy is made complete in Christ, we pray with confidence in his name. Amen
