Trinity Sunday

30th May 2021

@10am

Collect:

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: Isaiah 6:1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew.

And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory."

The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke.

And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!"

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out."

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

Second Reading: Romans 8:12-17

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh--for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.

For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, "Abba! Father!" it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ--if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

The Gospel according to John 3:1-17

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God."

Jesus answered him, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above."

Nicodemus said to him, "How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?"

Jesus answered, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, 'You must be born from above.'"

The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit."

Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?" Jesus answered him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?"

"Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. →

If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things?

No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man.

And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

"Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love: hold us firm in this faith, that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory, who are three Persons yet one God, now and for ever. Amen

Weekly Prayer

Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias (& St. Mylor) and a growth in our congregation(s).

For the homeless in our parishes and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world. Particularly for persecuted Christians.

For deliverance from Coronavirus and those communities both locally and nationally impacted by the pandemic throughout the world. We pray for the healthcare workers, as well as civil authorities and all those involved in assisting patients and in containing the spread of the virus.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For those fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world. For an end to the violence in Gaza and Israel.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

For those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially: Geoffrey Philpott, Christine Martin, Edna Lytle, Kevin Jose, Rob Coward, Ruby Jeffrey, Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, David Lydford, Annie Firth, Gillian Cable, Claire Coombes, Viv Hutchinson & Chris

Recently departed: Jean Roberts RIP, Mary Froom RIP & Bob Merry RIP.

Those who years mind:

Roy Gilbert, Jean Morris (30th), Nora Davis, Olive Merry (1st June), Wendy Miles (2nd), Basil Bond (3rd), Harold Fairclough, Jennifer Shane (4th), Doris Lang and Des Britton (5th).

In the diocese cycle of prayer: TRINITY SUNDAY & LOCAL WORSHIP LEADERS & LOCAL PASTORAL MINISTERS

Almighty God, Who for the salvation of the world Gives to his people many gifts and ministries, and whose Son Jesus Christ in his earthly life shared our toil and hallowed our labour: be present with those who have been commissioned as Local Pastoral Ministers and Local Worship Leaders, for it is by your Grace alone they were accepted and called to your service.

Strengthen them by your Holy Spirit so they may realise their calling; Bless and encourage them, along with the people and parishes where they serve, that in their work they may fulfil your will.

For the sake of him who came among us as one who serves, your Son our saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Anglican Communion: Pray for La Iglesia Anglicana de Mexico.

Prayers for Trinity Sunday

Let us pray with faith to the blessed and glorious Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Preserve your Church in the true faith, to acknowledge with awe and reverence the mystery of the Holy Trinity...Fill our worship with adoration...Give us due humility and assurance as members of the Church which you have created, loved and sanctified.

Open human eyes to the wonder of things unseen...Make all lives richer in the hope of blessings more than we can comprehend...Give clearer vision to those in positions of power and influence.

Grant to us in our own lives a share in the mutual love of the Holy Trinity...May that unbroken harmony be shown in our families, in our work and in all our relationships.

Have mercy on those whose lives are crippled by strain and anxiety in themselves, and hostility to others ...Release their tension, give them inward peace, restore them to the wholeness which is your will for all.

We pray for the departed who in this world held fast to the faith of the Holy Trinity and now adore you for ever. May their example strengthen and prepare us for the coming of joy made complete and love made perfect in your heavenly kingdom.

May our prayers be received in the unity of the Holy Trinity, three Persons and one God. Amen
