Third Sunday after Trinity Sunday 20th June 2021 @10am

Collect:

Almighty God, you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father: give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: Job 38:1-11

Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind: "Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?"

Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me.

"Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding.

Who determined its measurements--surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it?

On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?

"Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb?--when I made the clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band, and prescribed bounds for it, and set bars and doors, and said, 'Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stopped!'

~

Second Reading is from The Gospel according to Mark 4:35-41

On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side."

And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him.

A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped.

But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?"

He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm.

He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?"

And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

For deliverance from Coronavirus and those communities both locally and nationally impacted by the pandemic throughout the world. We pray for the healthcare workers, as well as civil authorities and all those involved in assisting patients and in containing the spread of the virus.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For those fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world. For an end to the violence in Gaza and Israel.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer: TRANSFORMING MISSION & FATHER'S DAY Heavenly Father, as we draw closer to restored physical freedoms and the potential for gathering together to worship you, help us to remember our freedom is and always has been in you, not in our circumstances, and that freedom no circumstance can take from us. We pray for your hand of safekeeping upon the churches as they return.

We pray for blessing upon the Transforming Mission churches so that they may be a blessing for all those around them, resourcing others to reach outwards and above all sharing the good news of salvation in Jesus Christ, that you might receive all the glory Lord, Amen.

Anglican Communion:

Pray for the Church of North India (United).

Prayers for the 3rd Sunday of Trinity:

Let us pray to God, the protector of all people and nations.

Keep the Church constant in faith and works, secure against the conflicting demands of our time...Armed with your righteousness and trusting in you alone, make your people ready to meet the needs of all.

Give peace to all places in the world that are torn by storms of war and violence... Come into the hearts of the powerful, giving them a desire to be reconciled with their enemies and to live in harmony...where there is hatred, let there be love.

In our work, let us remember that we are all workers together for Jesus...Give us grace to be mediators in disputes and to calm the tensions in our daily lives with others.

Have mercy on those who have no peace in themselves and bring them the peace of your presence...Watch over sailors and all who travel by sea, and preserve them from danger.

We give thanks for those who have crossed from life through death, and have come to rest in life eternal... Grant them a safe harbour and the peace that cannot be broken.

Trusting in Christ, ever present to save us, we pray in his name. Amen
