Fifth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 4th July 2021
@10am Holy Eucharist

Collect:

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people, that in their vocation and ministry they may serve you in holiness and truth to the glory of your name; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: Ezekiel 2:1-5

He said to me: O mortal, stand up on your feet, and I will speak with you.
And when he spoke to me, a spirit entered into me and set me on my feet; and I heard him speaking to me.

He said to me, Mortal, I am sending you to the people of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have transgressed against me to this very day.

The descendants are impudent and stubborn. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, "Thus says the Lord GOD."

Whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house), they shall know that there has been a prophet among them.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 12:2-10

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven--whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows.

And I know that such a person-- whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows-- was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat.

On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses.

But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth.
But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated.

Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

Gospel according to Mark 6:1-13

He left that place and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him.

On the Sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, "Where did this man get all this?
What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands!

Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him.

Then Jesus said to them, "Prophets are not without honour, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house."

And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them.

And he was amazed at their unbelief.
Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits.

He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics.

He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place.

If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them."

So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Post Communion Prayer:

Grant, O Lord, we beseech you, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by your governance, that your Church may joyfully serve you in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Weekly Prayer

Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world.

Particularly for persecuted Christians. For deliverance from Coronavirus and those communities both locally and nationally impacted by the pandemic throughout the world.

We pray for the healthcare workers, as well as civil authorities and all those involved in assisting patients and in containing the spread of the virus.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For those fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world. For an end to the violence in Gaza and Israel.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

For those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially: Geoffrey Philpott,

Christine Martin, Edna Lytle,

Kevin Jose, Rob Coward,

Ruby Jeffrey, Joan Wood,

Maria Strachan, Annie Firth,

Gillian Cable, Claire Coombes,

Roderick Dare, Viv Hutchinson,

Maureen Sanders & Chris

Those who years mind:

In the diocese cycle of prayer: GENERAL SYNOD 9 – 13 JULY

Triune God – ever living and loving in communion as Father, Son and Holy Spirit – we ask your blessing upon all the members of the General Synod as they meet this week, including those who represent this Diocese in the Houses of Laity, Clergy and Bishops.

Please guide them in their discussions and decision-making as they think and pray about the future of the Church of England as a whole. Amen.

Anglican Communion:

The Anglican Church of Papua New Guinea

Prayers for the 5th Sunday of Trinity:

Let us pray to God, by whose authority we are called to his service.

Keep the Church steadfast, confident in strength that comes only from your grace...Bless those who are chosen as your ministers and messengers, that they may preach the Gospel with assurance...Sustain those whose burdens are heavy as they work to relieve the burdens of others.

Wherever your word is preached, grant that it shall be heard with understanding and received with faith...Change the hearts of those who glory in their own strength and authority, and teach them to bear their power humbly.

Give us wisdom to discern the gifts that you have given to our friends and colleagues...Teach us to learn from one another and to give support where it is needed,

Uphold those who wish to help others but are frustrated by opposition and indifference...Give grace to all who suffer, that they may be open to accept relief.

We give thanks for the departed who in this world were granted a partial vision of your wonder and to whom it is now revealed in its fullness...Give us grace so to live in Christ that we too may behold his glory.

Through our prayers in the name of Christ, may we overcome evil. Amen
