Seventh Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 18th July 2021
@10am Service of the Word

Collect:

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: graft in our hearts the love of your name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of your great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

First Reading: Jeremiah 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the LORD.

Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the LORD.

Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply.

I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the LORD.

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.

In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: "The LORD is our righteousness."

Second Reading is taken from the Gospel of Mark 6:30-34, 53-56

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught.

He said to them, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves.

Now many saw them going and recognised them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them.

As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat.

When they got out of the boat, people at once recognised him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was.

And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

Weekly Prayer

Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world. Particularly for persecuted Christians. For deliverance from Coronavirus and those communities both locally and nationally impacted by the pandemic throughout the world. We pray for the healthcare workers, as well as civil authorities and all those involved in assisting patients and in containing the spread of the virus.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For those fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world. For an end to the violence in Gaza and Israel.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

For those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially:

Geoffrey Philpott, Christine Martin, Edna Lytle, Kevin Jose, Rob Coward, Ruby Jeffrey, Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Gillian Cable, Claire Coombes, Jackie & Roderick Dare, Viv Hutchinson, Chris, Sharron Simcock & Maureen Sanders

Those who years mind:

Marie Ratcliffe (18th) and William Hussey Pr. (22nd).

Recently departed: Annie Firth RIP

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

CHURCHWARDENS Lord, we thank you for the churchwardens who serve so faithfully across our Diocese. We pray your strength and wisdom for those who are new to the role, those who have continued to serve as churchwardens for many years and for those bearing extra responsibilities when their parishes are in transition. Sometimes their work goes unseen, so we pray that you will bless encourage and guide them in all that they do.

Anglican Communion:

Eglise Anglicane du Rwanda

Prayers for the 7th Sunday of Trinity

Let us pray to God who has compassion on his people in all their needs.

Strengthen the Church to be the witness of your new law and a living sign of your reconciling power... Bless those who work for the spread of the Gospel, granting them rest and refreshment when they are weary.

Save with your healing power the nations of the world... Grant that men and women shall not live in suspicion of strangers and fear of what seems to be foreign, but in harmony as your gathered people.

Draw into the fellowship of your household our families and friends, our neighbours and colleagues... Make us one in the unity that Christ has brought.

Visit and relieve the sick... Give new hope to those whose suffering has been long... Give skill and compassion to all who do the work of healing.

We give thanks for those whose lives were built on the foundation of Jesus Christ and now rest in him... Give them joy in the fellowship of the heavenly Church where he reigns for ever.

As sheep who have found their shepherd, we pray through Christ our Lord. Amen
