Twentieth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 17th October 2021

10am – Service of the Word

Collect:

God, the giver of life, whose Holy Spirit wells up within your Church: by the Spirit's gifts equip us to live the gospel of Christ and make us eager to do your will, that we may share with the whole creation the joys of eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: Isaiah 53:4-12

Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted.

But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people.

They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth.

Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the LORD shall prosper.

Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities.

Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Second Reading: Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you."

And he said to them, "What is it you want me to do for you?" And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory."

But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

They replied, "We are able." Then Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared."

When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, "You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them.

But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all.

For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

THANK YOU!

To everyone who so kindly donated towards my gifts and card. It was a real surprise to receive them last week. It has always been my pleasure to help serve our Church community.
Thank you, Jason

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world. Particularly for persecuted Christians.

For deliverance from Coronavirus and those communities both locally and nationally impacted by the pandemic throughout the world. We pray for the healthcare workers, as well as civil authorities and all those involved in assisting patients and in containing the spread of the virus.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For those fleeing violence and oppression, especially in Afghanistan.

For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world. For an end to the violence in Gaza and Israel.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

For those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially: Geoffrey Philpott, Christine Martin, Edna Lytle, Kevin Jose, Rob Coward, Ruby Jeffrey, Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Gillian Cable, Claire Coombes, Sharron Simcock Jackie and Roderick Dare, Alison Oliver, Pat Rogers & Chris.

Those who years mind:

Norman Dash, Charles Dunbar (17th), Ellen Rundle, Mark Hammond (18th), Bill Greenway (2nd), Harrel Ferris (23rd)

Recently departed: Norton Clothier RIP, previously a Churchwarden in this parish.

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

INTERNATIONAL DAY FOR THE ERADICATION OF POVERTY & ANTI SLAVERY DAY

Give us, O Lord, Churches that will be more courageous than cautious; that will not merely 'comfort the afflicted' but 'afflict the comfortable'; that will not only love the world but will also judge the world; that will not only pursue peace but also demand justice; that will not remain silent when people are calling for a voice; that will not pass by on the other side when wounded humanity is waiting to be healed; that will not only call us to worship but also send us out to witness; that will follow Christ even when the way points to a cross. To this end we offer ourselves in the name of him who loved us and gave himself for us. (Christian Conference of Asia, taken from 'They Shall Not Rob Us of Hope...', CAFOD, 1995)

Prayers for 20th Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray to the Father, who sent the Son to be a ransom for many.

Bless those who you have called to be priest and ministers in the Church... Fulfil your purpose in them, that they may always be faithful to the divine priesthood of Christ...Free them from worldly ambition and guide them to serve you faithfully in all things.

Give to the rulers of the world that wisdom and care that can come only from your grace... Let all in authority use their positions with justice, learning that the spirit of service is greater than the love of power.

In our homes and in our work, shield us from selfish disputes...With mutual love, let us live in the obedience that Jesus taught his followers by his word and his example.

Have mercy on those who suffer under oppressive power...Strengthen those who are sad and afflicted ...Heal their suffering through the sufferings of Christ.

We pray that the departed may rest in Christ, the author of their salvation ...Have mercy on those who are dying, that as they share his experience of death, they may rise with him in eternal life.

We offer our prayers through Christ, as his loving servants. Amen

NB: Please inform Rev'd Amanda or Richard (by email) of any notices for the pew sheet by noon on Thursday.

Weekly Prayer

Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.
