The Second Sunday of Epiphany

Sunday 16th January 2022

10am – Service of the Word

Collect:

Almighty God,
in Christ you make all things new:
transform the poverty of our nature
by the riches of your grace, and in the renewal of our lives make known your heavenly glory;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed.

You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak.

Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!"
and no one can say "Jesus is Lord"
except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone.

To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit,

to another the working of miracles,
to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. →

All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

Second Reading: John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.

When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her,
"Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come."

His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.

Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim.

He said to them, "Now draw some
out, and take it to the chief steward."
So they took it.

When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him,
"Everyone serves the good wine first,
and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now."

Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Penryn Foodbank

With a much greater need than ever, the local Foodbank needs YOUR support. Please can you help to provide: Coffee, tinned foods, cereals, dried pet food, washing powder and toiletries...all items donated are greatly appreciated. Please place items in a bag within the Foodbank container or contact Vicky Bennett.

100 Club Membership:

Please arrange to pay your annual subscription of £25 for the year, to Sue Bond before the end of this month.

Advanced notice:

Sunday 30th January is the fifth Sunday in the month, so we will once again share in worship at St. Mylor from 10.30am. There will be no services at St. Gluvias on this date.

We are looking for someone to take on doing a flower arrangement in one of the church windows. It would mean decorating the window about 6 or 7 times a year. If you are interested, please contact Margaret Hooper on 01326 375331

Weekly Prayer

Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world, particularly for persecuted Christians.

For deliverance from Coronavirus and those communities both locally and nationally impacted by the pandemic throughout the world.

We pray for the healthcare workers, as well as civil authorities and all those involved in assisting patients and in containing the spread of the virus.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For those fleeing violence and oppression.

For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

For those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially:

Geoffrey Philpott, Christine Martin, Edna Lytle, Ruby Jeffrey, Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Claire Coombes, Wendy Dunstan, Jackie Dare, Alison Oliver, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Chris & Baby Lilly.

Those who years mind:

Thomas Minson (17th), Lilian Hart, Christopher Lewis Pr. (18th), Bernice Kingdon (19th), Priscilla Baker, Frederick Webber, Phyllis Lawrence (21st), Vera Shoemack (22nd).

Recently departed:

We pray for Rev'd Amanda and her family, following the recent death of her mother-in-law.

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

TRANSFORMING MISSION

Father, we pray your blessing upon the Transforming Mission Projects across Cornwall. We thank you for the work that they are currently doing in Falmouth Liskeard, St Austell, Truro and Camborne. We pray that throughout this year they will continue to see you glorified within their communities and that you will give them more opportunities to show your love to those who do not know you. Amen.

Anglican Communion:

The Church of England

Prayers for 2nd Sunday in Epiphany

Let us pray to the Lord, the bountiful giver of love and mercy.

Give grace to the Church, to the crown of glory and a sign to the world...Guide your people to discern the special gifts that you have given to each and to use them fully in your service.

Grant that all the skill and wisdom may be rightly used for the advancement of your Kingdom.. Take away human pride, and give understanding that all gifts come from you.

We pray that in our families we may so live that we know you are always among us...Bless all in our community who are recently married or soon to marry, that they may hold together in love and loyalty all their lives.

Have mercy on those who suffer in unhappy marriages, on those who are separated or divorced... Bring healing and reconciliation where marriages are in danger, that love may be restored and promises fulfilled.

As we pray for the departed, we remember with thanks all that they gave to the life of this world...Grant them joy in the everlasting marriage feast of heaven.

We pray in the name of Christ, the mystical Bridegroom of his Church. Amen.

NB: Please inform Rev'd Amanda or Richard (by email) of any notices for the pew sheet by noon on Thursday.
