Fifth Sunday of Lent (Passiontide)

Sunday 3rd April 2022
10am – Sung Eucharist

Collect:

Most merciful God,
who by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ delivered and saved the world: grant that by faith in him who suffered on the cross we may triumph in the power of his victory; through Jesus Christ your Son
our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

~

First Reading: Isaiah 43:16-21

Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:

Do not remember the former things,
or consider the things of old.

I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?
I will make a way in the wilderness
and rivers in the desert.

The wild animals will honour me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

Second Reading: Philippians 3:4b-14

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more:
circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born
of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee;
as to zeal, a persecutor of the church;
as to righteousness under the law,
blameless.

Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ.

More than that, I regard everything
as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish,
in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith.

I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain
the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own.

Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God
in Christ Jesus.

Gospel: John 12:1-8

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.

There they gave a dinner for him.
Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him.

Mary took a pound of costly perfume
made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet,
and wiped them with her hair.
The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples
(the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume
not sold for three hundred denarii
and the money given to the poor?"

(He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.)

Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial.

You always have the poor with you,
but you do not always have me."

Post Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ,
you have taught us that what we do for the least of our brothers and sisters we do also for you: give us the will to be the servant of others as you were the servant of all, and gave up your life and died for us, but are alive
and reign, now and for ever. Amen

Penryn Foodbank

With a much greater need than ever, the local Foodbank needs YOUR support. Please can you help to provide: Coffee, tinned foods, cereals, dried pet food, washing powder and toiletries... all items donated are greatly appreciated. Please place items in a bag within the Foodbank container or contact Vicky Bennett.

CAP - (Christians Against Poverty)

Today is the deadline for donations. If you would like to contribute to a hamper for families suffering from poverty in our area, have a look at the list and tick the sheet at the back of the church indicating the item/items you would like to donate.

With grateful thanks. Sue Bond

Chrism Eucharist at Cathedral on Maundy Thursday (14th April) from 10.30am

Bishop Philip has invited all ordained ministers to take part in the Chrism Eucharist. He also invites everyone else to either attend this service or to pray for those involved if they cannot attend. At the end of the Eucharist, they will offer anointing for all those present.

As a reminder, we will also have our own Sung Eucharist service on Maundy Thursday followed by the stripping of the altar and silent pray vigil.

On Good Friday we have the customary Liturgy in the afternoon with Passion Reading.

Holy Saturday we will gather from noon for Stations of the Cross one final time as we finish dressing the church for Easter.

We do hope that you will be able to join in with these services which will be led by Fr Tim Pilkington.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world, particularly for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the healthcare workers, as well as civil authorities and all those involved in assisting patients and in containing the spread of coronavirus.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders. We pray for all those who are afraid; that your everlasting arms hold them in this time of great fear.

We pray for those who choose war; that they will remember that you direct your people to turn our swords into ploughshares and seek for peace. We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for the people across the Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For all people fleeing violence and oppression.

For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

For those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially:

Ruby Jeffrey, Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Claire Coombes, Wendy Dunstan, Jackie Dare, Alison Oliver, Jo Lawrence, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, David Kessell, Chris and Baby Lilly.

Those whose years mind:

Dorothy Allen, Jack Hoblin (3rd), Phyllis Thompson (4th), Michael Simcock Pr. (5th), John Serpell (6th), Kenneth Jewell (7th), Ada Thomas (9th).

In the diocese cycle of prayer: TRANSFORMING MISSION

Falmouth - We pray for wisdom and sustainability as the grant funding comes to an end and that they will have a growing missional impact on Falmouth. St Austell - We pray for a smooth transition to the Trinity Centre in May. Camborne - We pray for new opportunities in Troon to grow community and for opportunities to plant seeds of faith in the mid-week groups for children and families. Truro - We pray that Truro will continue to impact its community through their work. Liskeard - We pray for Liskeard as they run The Bereavement Journey course from 26th April, We thank you for all of the Teams, and pray that God will continue to strengthen and guide them. Amen.

Anglican Communion:

5th Sunday of Lent Prayer for Repentance the Church of Nigeria (Anglican Communion)

Prayers for Passiontide

Let us pray to God with the reverence and honour due to his name.

May the Church, created for your service, always have grace to praise you and glorify your name...Keep your people both faithful to the teaching they have received and also open to follow new ways that may be your will for them.

May your power be honoured though your creatures as people learn to respect all that you have made... Be with those who are entrusted with financial responsibility, keep them honest and open in all their dealings.

Bless us, our families and friends, that we may be committed to those with whom we live but never forget the loyalty that is due to you alone... Guide us to remember the poor in our community and to show our love for you though love for them.

Have mercy on those who are victims of their own failures to love...Give them the spirit of true generosity towards others...Have mercy on all who suffer the meanness and injustice of those who should provide for them.

We pray for those who have died, that they may have eternal life through the power of Christ's resurrection...May they rest in his love and rise in his glory.

That our prayers may be worthy to be received, we offer them in the name of Christ.

NB: Please inform Rev'd Amanda or Richard (by email) of any notices for the pew sheet by noon on Thursday.
