10am – Sung Eucharist

Palm Gospel - Luke 19:28-40

After he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it.'"

So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?" They said, "The Lord needs it." Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it.

As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!"

Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, order your disciples to stop."

He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out."

Collect:

Almighty and everlasting God, who in your tender love towards the human race sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ to take upon him our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross: grant that we may follow the example of his patience and humility, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-9a

The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens-- wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.

The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward.

I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

The Lord GOD helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me.

It is the Lord GOD who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

Second Reading: Philippians 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death-- even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Passion Gospel Reading Luke 23.1-49

Post Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you humbled yourself in taking the form of a servant, and in obedience died on the cross for our salvation: give us the mind to follow you and to proclaim you as Lord and King, to the glory of God the Father. Amen

Story and Witness is very much a day to be seen in conjunction with The Archbishop of Canterbury's Mission to Cornwall on the weekend 17th - 19th June 2022.

The day session will be spent benefiting from the shared experience of two of ++ Justin's Community of Evangelists who both work across a very wide variety of communities and will perhaps challenge some of the misconceptions of what 'evangelism' actually looks like!

The evening will be spent out in Falmouth during the Sea Shanty Festival with ++ Justin boldly engaging with our community in whatever way the Holy Spirit leads.

Saturday 18th June 2022

Please let Ben know by 15th May if you are able to attend all or some of this mission

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world, particularly for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the healthcare workers, as well as civil authorities and all those involved in assisting patients and in containing the spread coronavirus.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders. We pray for all those who are afraid; that your everlasting arms hold them in this time of great fear.

We pray for those who choose war; that they will remember that you direct your people to turn our swords into ploughshares and seek for peace. We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for the people across the Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For all people fleeing violence and oppression.

For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

For those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially:

Ruby Jeffrey,
Joan Wood, Maria Strachan,
Claire Coombes, Wendy Dunstan,
Jackie Dare, Alison Oliver, Jo Lawrence, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, David Kessell, Chris and Baby Lilly.

Those whose years mind:

Harold Francis, Phillipa Frowde (11th), Jane Tremayne, Hannah Ray, John Abraham (12th), Hayden Thomas, Charles Keeler (15th).

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

PALM SUNDAY We pray for the churches in the diocese as we embark upon Holy Week, sharing Christ's own journey from the triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, to Jesus washing his disciples' feet, breaking bread and sharing wine with them at the last supper, to his arrest, trial, torture and death at Golgotha on Good Friday. We reflect together on the joys and sorrows of Christ's last week on earth, the grief at his death and the 'waiting' of Holy Saturday. And in the certain hope of resurrection morning, we remember all those who have died during the pandemic over this past year and pray God's comfort and hope for all who mourn. Amen

Anglican Communion:

Palm Sunday, The Church of North India (United).

Prayers for Palm Sunday

Reader: For Christians of every denomination, that the coming week may give us a deeper sense of all that Jesus has done for us in this suffering, dying and rising.

We pray for those Christians preparing baptism at Easter.

Lord, hear us

All: Lord, graciously hear us

Reader: Let us pray for all places of international tension or strife, Remembering all those innocent people caught up in war or conflict, especially in N/N.

Lord, hear us

All: Lord, graciously hear us

Reader: Let us pray for the sick and suffering, amongst them..., that they may find support and encouragement from the sufferings of Christ, for their families and friends.

Lord, hear us

All: Lord, graciously hear us

Reader: For those recently departed we pray..., together with those whose anniversaries of death fall this week ..., may they share in the hope and glory of Christ's resurrection.

Lord, hear us

All: Lord, graciously hear us

The prayers may conclude with the following:

President: Father, as we enter with Jesus into Jerusalem, the place where he made intercession for us, hear now the petitions we make in this place, for we ask them through the same Christ, our Lord

All: Amen
