Fifth Sunday of Easter

Sunday 15th May 2022
10am – Sung Eucharist

Collect:

Almighty God,
who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ have overcome death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: grant that, as by your grace going before us you put into our minds good desires, so by your continual help we may bring them to good effect; through Jesus Christ our risen Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: Acts 11:1-18

Now the apostles and the believers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also accepted the word of God.

So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticized him, saying, "Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?"

Then Peter began to explain it to them, step by step, saying, "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. There was something like a large sheet coming down from heaven, being lowered by its four corners; and it came close to me.

As I looked at it closely I saw four-footed animals, beasts of prey, reptiles, and birds of the air. I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Get up, Peter; kill and eat.' But I replied, 'By no means, Lord; for nothing profane or unclean has ever entered my mouth.'

But a second time the voice answered from heaven, 'What God has made clean, you must not call profane.'

This happened three times; then everything was pulled up again to heaven. At that very moment three men, sent to me from Caesarea, arrived at the house where we were.

The Spirit told me to go with them and not to make a distinction between them and us. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered the man's house.

He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying,
'Send to Joppa and bring Simon, who is called Peter; he will give you a message by which you and your entire household will be saved.'

And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as it had upon us at the beginning.

And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said, 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'

If then God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could hinder God?"

When they heard this, they were silenced. And they praised God, saying, "Then God has given even to the Gentiles the repentance that leads to life."

Second Reading: Revelation 21:1-6

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.

And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away."

And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new."

Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty

I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.

Gospel Reading: John 13:31-35

When he had gone out, Jesus said,
"Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him.

If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once.

Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.'

I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another.

By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal God,
whose Son Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life:
grant us to walk in his way, to rejoice in his truth, and to share his risen life; who is alive and reigns,
now and for ever. Amen

We are pleased to welcome

Weekly Notices

APCM – Sunday 22 May after the 10am parish mass

WE WANT YOU

Have you ever considered standing as a member of the Parhocial Church Council?

Your church needs your support.

Q: Do you have an interest in the well-being of children?

Q: Do you have confidence and good judgment?

Q: Would you be willing to assist the church?

If the answer is yes, please speak with a member of the PCC to see how you can help.

Story and Witness is very much a day to be seen in conjunction with The Archbishop of Canterbury's Mission to Cornwall on the weekend 17th - 19th June 2022.

The day session will be spent benefiting from the shared experience of two of ++ Justin's Community of Evangelists who both work across a very wide variety of communities and will perhaps challenge some of the misconceptions of what 'evangelism' actually looks like!

The evening will be spent out in Falmouth during the Sea Shanty Festival with ++ Justin boldly engaging with our community in whatever way the Holy Spirit leads.

Saturday 18th June 2022

Please let Ben know by 15th May if you are able to attend all or some of this mission

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

We pray for all healthcare workers, as well as civil authorities and those involved in assisting patients and in containing the spread coronavirus.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders. We pray for all those who are afraid; that your everlasting arms hold them in this time of great fear.

We pray for those who choose war; that they will remember that you direct your people to turn our swords into ploughshares and seek for peace. We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

For those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially:

Ruby Jeffrey, Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Claire Coombes, Wendy Dunstan, Jackie Dare, Alison Oliver, Jo Lawrence, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, David Kessell, Chris and Baby Lilly.

Those whose years mind:

Jenny Webber, Doreen Rangelcroft (17th) and Ada Thomas (19th).

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

CHRISTIAN AID WEEK Creator, Son and Spirit, we gather together, online or in-person to seek Your presence in our time of worship. We are hungry for you. Meet us at our point of deepest need. Connect us with the needs of others. Equip us to join in your creative work. Transform us more into your likeness. We are hungry for your righteousness. We gather with Janet, Jessica and Jerina and their communities in Zimbabwe. May their stories make us hungry for justice and even more impatient for change. We are hungry for your justice. We gather with all of creation; with the mountains and the hills. We shall burst into song, with the trees of the field we will clap our hands. We are hungry to praise you. Amen

Anglican Communion:

5th Sunday of Easter - The Scottish Episcopal Church.

Prayers for 5th Sunday of Easter

Let us pray to the Lord, whose love commands us to love one another.

Give to the Church the spirit of holiness, to be the image here on earth of the New Jerusalem...Inspire your people with mutual love, so that all may know that we are your disciples.

Break through the prejudices that divide people from one another...Open the eyes of the proud, to see the worth of those they have despised...Give peace between nations and harmony between races.

Grant that in our families and our friendships we shall truly love one another...In our work, and with our neighbours, keep us open to hear different opinions and to respect those with whom we disagree.

Comfort those who are outcast and unloved...Have mercy on all who suffer discrimination as members of minorities...Give grace to all who work for better understanding in places of racial or religious tensions.

We pray for the departed, who have entered into new life...Keep them eternally where there is no more death, no sorrow or crying or pain.

As we pray in the name of Christ, may we ever be faithful to him. Amen.
