St Gluvias Church
Penryn, Cornwall

Corpus Christi (First Sunday after Trinity) Sunday 19th June 2022 10am – Sung Eucharist

Collect:

Lord Jesus Christ,

we thank you that in this wonderful sacrament you have given us the memorial of your passion: grant us so to reverence the sacred mysteries of your body and blood that we may know within ourselves and show forth in our lives the fruits of your redemption; for you are alive and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: Genesis 14:18-20

And King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine. He was priest of God Most High. He blessed him and said,

“Blessed be Abram by God Most High, maker of heaven and earth. And blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand.”

Then Abram gave him one-tenth of everything.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you: that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

In the same way, he took the cup also, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.

Gospel Reading: John 6:51-58

I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.”

The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

So Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.

Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink.

Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them.

Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me.

This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever."

Post Communion Prayer

All praise to you, our God and Father, for you have fed us with the bread of heaven and quenched our thirst from the true vine: hear our prayer that, being grafted into Christ, we may grow together in unity and feast with him in his kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

‘Rev’d Amanda would like to thank everyone very much for their kind words, prayers and best wishes on the death of her father, Roger, and earlier this year the loss of her mother in law, Muriel.

Amanda is delighted to be coming back shortly on a ‘phased return’ to work over the next four weeks, meaning that during this time she will be focusing exclusively on leading worship on Sundays and preparing and taking weddings as a way of returning gradually (which will not include midweek or home communions for the moment.)

Her first Sunday with us will be Sunday 26th June at 10am as usual.’

Giving has now got easier.

Love Land's Summer Feast! Sunday 26 June from 12noon

We've inquired about a new long-term tenancy for Loveland, so we're inviting the wider community to contribute to our plans for the future.

Loveland's Ste and Fran are bringing their participatory design practice, Social Designs, back on site to gather fresh input from you on the proposal for our new community building. We're also thinking about what we could grow over a bigger time span and the good folks facilitating food, flowers, trees and herbs will be on hand to record your thoughts. Whether this be your first time at Loveland or you come every week, every opinion will be equally valuable. We want as many people as possible to help set our collective direction so everyone is welcome to get involved!

Feasting at 2pm:

Please arrive on time for food so that we can all sit around the table and enjoy the collective spirit! A vegetarian feast containing the delights of the Loveland field will be served up for all to enjoy!

Playing all the way through! SPIN THE CARROT!

We want to inspire a playful attitude to the future of Loveland as we invite you to partake in conversation, feasting and creative thinking about what's next at the field.

Katie and Simon from Small Acts will host 'Spin the Carrot' – a rolling conversation held at a roundtable of the seasons. From seasonality to food security, plant-lore to favourite food memories, spin the seasonal wheel to determine the topic of discussion!

To reserve your spot at the table please book your ticket! Tickets are on a sliding scale from £0-£3-£5-£7 and of course all donations will go straight back into the Loveland project!

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders. We pray for all those who are afraid; that your everlasting arms hold them in this time of great fear.

We pray for those who choose war; that they will remember that you direct your people to turn our swords into ploughshares and seek for peace. We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

For those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially: Ruby Jeffrey, Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Claire Coombes, Wendy Dunstan, Jackie Dare, Jo Lawrence, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, David Kessell, Chris and Baby Lilly.

Those whose years mind:

Dorothy Bishop-Veale (17th)
Rose Williams (22nd), Edna Kerslake
Jennifer Butland (23rd).

Recently departed:

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

PETERTIDE ORDINATIONS

Heavenly father, we pray for those who are to be ordained priest and deacon at Truro Cathedral. We pray for them all as they embark on the next step in their journey of faith and vocation. We thank you for their faith and their passion for your church and pray that they will help to bring your message to the people within their parishes.

Amen

Anglican Communion:

1st Sunday after Trinity Province of the Episcopal Church of South Sudan

Prayers for Corpus Christi, Thanksgiving for Holy Communion

Let us pray with thanksgiving to God, the giver of our spiritual food and of all grace.

Grant to your Church the continual grace of the sacraments...Keep all Christian people faithful to your command of remembrance, recalling the price of our redemption and the source of our Life...Teach us to serve you in others, bringing to them the bread of life and the message of salvation.

Give to all nations hunger and thirst for righteousness through your living word...Make all men and women understand the fellowship which they share in their common humanity, so that all life becomes a sacrament of your presence.

In the strength of the Holy Communion, send us out to make your power known to our friends and neighbours and colleague... Supply us with our bodily needs, and with the spiritual food and drink that makes us one with Christ.

We pray for all who are starving in the midst of plenty...Bring new hope for the relief of their suffering...Move the hearts of the rich and powerful to relieve the poor and weak.

We give thanks for all who have died sustained by the comfort of Holy Communion... May they rejoice for ever in the heavenly banquet where form of bread and wine give way to the full revelation of Christ.

We offer our prayers, rejoicing in the communion that unites us with Christ. Amen

NB: Please inform Richard (by email) of any notices for the pew sheet by noon on Thursday
