Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 10 September 2023

Sung Eucharist at 10am

Fr Tim Pilkington

Collect:

Almighty God,

whose only Son has opened for us a new and living way into your presence:

give us pure hearts and steadfast wills to worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the book of the Prophet Ezekiel

So you, mortal, I have made a sentinel for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me.

If I say to the wicked, "O wicked ones, you shall surely die," and you do not speak to warn the wicked to turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but their blood I will require at your hand.

But if you warn the wicked to turn from their ways, and they do not turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but you will have saved your life.

Now you, mortal, say to the house of Israel, Thus you have said: "Our transgressions and our sins weigh upon us, and we waste away because of them;
how then can we live?"

Say to them, As I live, says the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from their ways and live; turn back, turn back from your evil ways; for why will you die, O house of Israel?

A reading from the epistle of Paul to the Romans

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law.

The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder;
You shall not steal; You shall not covet";
and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, "Love your neighbour as yourself."

Love does no wrong to a neighbour;
therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

Besides this, you know what time it is,
how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers;

the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armour of light;

let us live honourably as in the day, not in revelling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarrelling and jealousy.

Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

The Gospel of Matthew

"If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one.

But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven.

For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them."

Post Communion Prayer

Lord God,

the source of truth and love,
keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, united in prayer and the breaking of bread, and one in joy and simplicity of heart,
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For those involved in reshaping the Deanery and for creating the new benefice:

-We pray for those who have the responsibility of leadership.

-For those trying to discern God's will and our path.

-For those trying to discern their own calling...or that of others.

-For those who may be called to serve in this Deanery.

-For our parish...for our benefice...for the 'other' benefice in Falmouth...for our Deanery.

- For Revd Emma Louise Ayerst Durose, and her family, as she prepares to take up her new position.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders. We pray for all those who are afraid; that your everlasting arms hold them in this time of great fear.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

EDUCATION SUNDAY Living Lord, We join with you in giving thanks to all those in our schools. We are thankful that our schools are places of learning, love and laughter and that we see your work and teachings alive here. We thank you for giving the adults and pupils in our schools strength, resilience and hope during times when things can sometimes feel like there's nowhere to turn. In these places of learning, love and laughter, Your voice can be heard in the words we hear. Your actions can be seen in the care and love of the adults that make each school family. Your wisdom can be seen in the learning. Your hope can be seen in the aspirations we have for every child. Lord, we give heartfelt thanks that our schools are places where our pupils live life in all its fullness.

Prayers for 14th Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray in love to God who loves all that he has made.

Let the whole Church be filled with the divine grace which comes where two or three are gathered together in your name... Bless your Christian people with unity to empower their prayers.

Rouse the world from the sloth of selfish and material concerns... Heal with the spirit of love the disputes that divide people and nations.

Bless our families, friends and neighbours with the spirit of reconciliation... Let your law be fulfilled among us in the world of love.

Come and relieve those who are caught in bitter litigation... Help the victims of injustice who suffer under loveless power.

We pray for the sick, especially:

Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Paul Campbell, Alys Pilkington and young Lilly.

We pray for those who have tried to follow the way of love and are now at rest... In the fullness of your love, give them perfect freedom.

We pray for the soul of Jo Kennedy recently departed this life... and for Ronald Pope (10th), Beryl Welburn, Kathy Hill (15th), Dorris Webber (16th).

Gathered together in the name of Christ, we make our prayers through him.
