Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath; for the heavens will vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and those who live on it will die like gnats; but my salvation will be forever, and my deliverance will never be ended.

A reading from the epistle of Paul to the Romans

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God--what is good and acceptable and perfect.

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned.

For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another.

We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

The Gospel of Matthew

Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"

And they said, "Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven.

And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it.

I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."

Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Post Communion Prayer

God of all mercy,
in this eucharist you have set aside our sins and given us your healing:
grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Twelfth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 27 August 2023

Sung Eucharist at 10am

Fr Tim Pilkington

Collect:

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve:

pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

A reading from the book of the Prophet Isaiah

Listen to me, you that pursue righteousness, you that seek the LORD. Look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug.

Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you; for he was but one when I called him, but I blessed him and made him many.

For the LORD will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places, and will make her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song.

Listen to me, my people, and give heed to me, my nation; for a teaching will go out from me, and my justice for a light to the peoples.

I will bring near my deliverance swiftly, my salvation has gone out and my arms will rule the peoples; the coastlands wait for me, and for my arm they hope.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For those involved in reshaping the Deanery and for creating the new benefice:

-We pray for those who have the responsibility of leadership.

-For those trying to discern God's will and our path.

-For those trying to discern their own calling...or that of others.

-For those who may be called to serve in this Deanery.

-For our parish...for our benefice...for the 'other' benefice in Falmouth...for our Deanery.

- For Revd Emma Louise Ayerst Durose, and her family, as she prepares to take up her new position.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders. We pray for all those who are afraid; that your everlasting arms hold them in this time of great fear.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for the people across Syria who have suffered for so long and continue to suffer. For all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

INTERNATIONAL LINKS

Almighty God, we thank you for our link with different dioceses across the world. We pray that you will continue to strengthen grow these links and that you will bless those involved, help them to lead and encourage one another. We especially think of those in places that are facing challenges at the moment, we pray that as one body we will support each other to see your kingdom grow across the world. Amen

Anglican Communion:

12th Sunday after Trinity - Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui.

Prayers for 12th Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray for the Church which Christ has built for the world which has saved.

Preserve your Church in strength and stability, by your promise that no evil shall prevail against it...Make its members zealous in their callings, to work in all things according to your will.

Give to all people the desire to work together for good...As they recognise their calling, may each come to know Christ as the Son of God.

Bless us in our daily work and bless those who work with us...Use in your service the abilities of all who live and work in this community...Grant wisdom and discernment to those who are called to special responsibility.

Strengthen with hope those who think themselves of no worth...Give them light to understand their part in your purpose and grace to fulfil it.

We pray for the sick, especially:

Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Paul Campbell and young Lilly.

We commend those who have died in the faith of Christ, true to the Church which he built...Keep us constant in the same faith now and at the last.

We pray for the souls of

Emma Butland-Kevern, Christine Hill and Maureen Sanders recently departed this life...
and for Grace Williams (27th), Bill Dunstan, Harry Thompson (28th), Mary Rendle, Leslie Osborne (29th) and Frank Blamey (30th).

Confessing Christ as the Son of God, we pray in his name. Amen.
