Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity Sunday 15 October 2023

Sung Eucharist at 10am
Rev'd Ben Hudd

Collect:

O God, forasmuch as without you we are not able to please you; mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

O LORD, you are my God; I will exalt you, I will praise your name; for you have done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure.

For you have made the city a heap, the fortified city a ruin; the palace of aliens is a city no more, it will never be rebuilt.

Therefore strong peoples will glorify you; cities of ruthless nations will fear you.

For you have been a refuge to the poor, a refuge to the needy in their distress, a shelter from the rainstorm and a shade from the heat. When the blast of the ruthless was like a winter rainstorm, the noise of aliens like heat in a dry place, you subdued the heat with the shade of clouds; the song of the ruthless was stilled.

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.

And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever.

Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken.

It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

A reading from Letter of Paul to the Philippians

Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord.

Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near.

Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.

Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

The Gospel of Matthew

Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son.

He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come.

Again he sent other slaves, saying, "Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.'

But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them.

The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.

Then he said to his slaves, 'The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy.'

Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.'

Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

"But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?' And he was speechless.

Then the king said to the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

For many are called, but few are chosen."

Post Communion Prayer

Holy and blessed God, you have fed us with the body and blood of your Son and filled us with your Holy Spirit: may we honour you, not only with our lips but in lives dedicated to the service of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For those involved in reshaping the Deanery and for creating the new benefice:

-We pray for those who have the responsibility of leadership.

-For those trying to discern God's will and our path.

-For those trying to discern their own calling...or that of others.

-For those who may be called to serve in this Deanery.

-For our parish...for our benefice...for the 'other' benefice in Falmouth...for our Deanery.

- For Revd Emma Louise Ayerst Durose, and her family, as she prepares to take up her new position.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders.

We call upon you to show mercy to the people Israel and Palestine and protect them.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

HOSPITAL SUNDAY We pray for the work of our hospitals. For those who work in them; doctors, nurses, cleaners, chaplains and all who are involved in the provision of health care. We pray for those who use our hospitals, particularly for the sick, the anxious and the dying. Give us confidence to pray for our hospitals, so that we may see Christ, the great physician, moving in the lives of those who use and work in them and in our community. Amen

Prayer by Revd Keiren Marwood, Healthcare chaplain at the Royal Cornwall Hospitals NHS Trust

Anglican Communion:

19th Sunday after Trinity - The Anglican Church of Kenya.

Prayers for the 19th Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray to the Father who invites all men and women to receive his love.

Grant that your people, called by grace, shall be worthy of their calling...Keep the Church faithful in proclaiming all the good things of your giving.

Let the whole world hear your call... Come to those who turn away and gather them into the great feast of your love.

Reconcile those in our community who are at variance with each other...Draw us, our families and friends, into the peace that is beyond our understanding.

Be with your servants who suffer for their proclaiming of the Gospel...Turn the hearts of their persecutors and bring them to the way of truth.

We pray for the sick, especially:

Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Alys Pilkington, young Lilly and Archdeacon Paul.

Grant your peace to the faithful departed, that they may enjoy the perfection of those good things which they partially knew in this world.

We pray for the souls of those whose anniversaries fall at this time:

Douglas Thomas (16th), Norman Dash, Charles Dunbar (17th), Ellen Rundle and Mark Hammond (18th).

And for the soul of Terry Pond, who has recently died.

We pray as those who seek to be worthy guests of the Lord who has called us to his divine feast.
