Collect:

Blessed Lord,

who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the book of Leviticus

The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy.

You shall not render an unjust judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbour.

You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not profit by the blood of your neighbour: I am the LORD.

You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbour, or you will incur guilt yourself.

You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbour as yourself: I am the LORD.

A reading from First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition.

For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts.

As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children.

So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

The Gospel of Matthew

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him.

"Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?"

He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.'

This is the greatest and first commandment.

And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.'

On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: "What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David."

He said to them, "How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying,

'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet"'?

If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?"

No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

Post Communion Prayer

God of all grace,
your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your true and living bread; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

Anglican Communion:

Last Sunday after Trinity - The Anglican Church of Melanesia

Prayers for the Last Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray to the Lord who rules over all things on earth and in heaven.

May your Church always proclaim the Gospel entrusted to her, never to be tuned aside by desire for popular approval or worldly glory...May she fulfil in all her works the great commandment of your love.

Draw all nations closer to the sharing of love that overcomes all differences...
Hasten the time when the whole world shall acknowledge you as Lord of all.

In love and gentleness may we be ministers of our grace to all those with whom we share our lives...Help us to live together as true neighbours of one another.

We pray for the sick, especially:

Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare, Pat Rogers,
Lilian Hosking, Alys Pilkington and young Lilly.

Have mercy on all who have been led astray and harmed by false teaching
...Forgive their errors and free them from the power of evil.

Raise up the faithful departed into the perfect love which they began to understand in this world...Have mercy on those who did not understand and grant them now the joy and fellowship that they could not find here.

We pray for the souls of those whose anniversaries fall at this time:

Rose Ingram (31st), Jessie Ledgeston (1st Nov), Bill Gibbons (2nd), Nellie Hocking, Nellie Hall, Malcolm Osborne Pr. (4th)

We make our prayers in holy love to God and to our neighbours.

Congratulations to Jenny Gluyas who was confirmed
yesterday, at Truro Cathedral, support by her friends.

We are pleased to welcome our friends from St. Mylor to share in our worship with us
this morning.
