The Third Sunday after Trinity Sunday 16 June 2024 Sung Eucharist at 10am Rev'd Geoff Davis

Collect:

Almighty God,
you have broken the tyranny of sin
and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father: give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God,
now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the book of the Prophet Ezekiel

Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of a cedar;
I will set it out. I will break off a tender
one from the topmost of its young twigs;
I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain.

On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it, in order that it may produce boughs and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Under it every kind of bird will live; in the shade of its branches will nest winged creatures of every kind.

All the trees of the field shall know that I am the LORD. I bring low the high tree, I make high the low tree; I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. I the LORD have spoken; I will accomplish it.

A reading from the Second letter of Paul to the Corinthians

So we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord --for we walk by faith, not by sight.

Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord.

So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him.

For all of us must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil.

Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we try to persuade others; but we ourselves are well known to God, and I hope that we are also well known to your consciences.

We are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you an opportunity to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast in outward appearance and not in the heart.

For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you.

For the love of Christ urges us on,
because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died.

And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them.

From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way.

So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

The Gospel: Mark

He also said, "The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how.

The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head.

But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come."

He also said, "With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it?

It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth;

yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade."

With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

Post Communion Prayer:

O God, whose beauty is beyond our Imagining and whose power we cannot comprehend: show us your glory as far as we can grasp it, and shield us from knowing more than we can bear until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen

The kingdom of God is like this.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

We pray for those involved in the selection process to appoint a 'House for Duty' priest (HfD) to assist in the Penryn Benefice.

-We pray for those who have the responsibility of leadership and for our ministry team.

-For those trying to discern God's will and our path.

-For those trying to discern their own calling...or that of others.

-For those who may be called to serve in this Benefice.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders.

We call upon you to show mercy to the people Israel and Palestine and protect them.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

LEADERSHIP Father we pray for all of those within a leadership role within the Diocese. We thank you for their dedication to serving you and the churches throughout Cornwall. Bless those who are about to start leadership training, that they will know your presence and guidance. We thank you for those who have served in leadership for many years, for their faithfulness and commitment. Amen

Anglican Communion:

3rd Sunday after Trinity - Iglesia Anglicana de Chile

Prayers for 3rd Sunday after Trinity

For the increase of his Kingdom, let us pray to the Lord.

Fill your Church with confidence in Christ as her Lord, to make him known by teaching and example...Nourish the good seed of your word in us, that it may be fruitful in witness to the world.

As Christ died for all, may his love renew men and women as his new creation... Open the eyes that are closed to your glory and the ears that will not hear the good news...Let self-interest be changed to the true desire for the common good.

Guide us to discern the signs of your presence among us, in family life, in work, in all our dealings...Trusting in your strength, may we bring to fruition all that is your will for us.

Bless and comfort those whose work is hard and who see no result for what they do...Give them strength to persevere, in the knowledge that you are working in all things.

We pray for the sick, especially:

Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Joan Whitford, Kevin Kitto and young Lilly.

We pray for those who have left their earthly bodies and come home to you...Judge them with mercy through the sacrifice of Christ.

We remember those with anniversaries at this time, especially:

Frederick Webber, Edith Fairbrother, Dennis Newman (16th), Kenneth Buller, Bernard Coombes (17th), Doreen Bishop-Veale (18th), Rose Williams (22nd).

That we may grow in the service of Christ, we pray in his name.
