The Eleventh Sunday after Trinity Sunday 11 August 2024 Fr Tim Pilkington

Collect:

O God,
you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from first book of Kings

But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die, "It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors."

Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, "Get up and eat."

He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones and a jar of water. He ate and drank and lay down again.

The angel of the LORD came a second time, touched him, and said, "Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you."

He got up and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians

So then, putting away falsehood, let each of you speak the truth with your neighbour, for we are members of one another. Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not make room for the devil.

Those who steal must give up stealing; rather, let them labour, doing good work with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy.

Let no evil talk come out of your mouths but only what is good for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear.

And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption.

Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice. Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you.

Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

The Gospel: John

Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven."

They were saying, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I have come down from heaven?'"

Jesus answered them, "Do not complain among yourselves.

No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me, and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me.

Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life.

I am the bread of life.

Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.

This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die.

I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever, and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

Post Communion Prayer:

Lord of all mercy,
we your faithful people have celebrated that one true sacrifice which takes away our sins and brings pardon and peace: by our communion keep us firm on the foundation of the gospel and preserve us from all sin; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Anglican Communion:

11th Sunday after Trinity The Anglican Church of Korea

Prayers for 11th Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray to the Father through the Son in whom he has been revealed.

Cleanse the Church from all malice and dissension. . . Grant to the people the unity of purpose that will spread peace to others. . . Give to those you have called to your service grace to be ministers of the bread of life.

Look with compassion on the world where anger so often prevails over love, where false speech and evil words destroy human fellowship. . . Make all know the peace that is in Christ through this death for the life of the world.

In all our words, to families and friends, to neighbours and colleague, help us to speak gently and with understanding. . . Bring reconciliation wherever in this community fellowship has been broken.

Have mercy on those whose lives are twisted in bitterness. . . All who cannot forgive others or cannot find freedom from personal guilt. . . Relieve them with the knowledge of redeeming love.

We pray especially for the sick, remembering: Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Joan Whitford, and young Lilly.

According to your promise, grant eternal life to those who have died in the faith of Christ. . . As they were strengthened by the bread of life in this world, grant them everlasting refreshment in your heavenly Kingdom.

We remember the soul of Veronica Gray, recently departed this life and those whose anniversaries fall at this time; especially: Susan Davis (10th), Emma Butland-Kevern (11th), William George Hodge, James Whitehouse, Roy Bowden (12th), Joseph Lang, Maimie Keeler (13th), Eliza Fairclough, Mark Jewell, Phyllis Eustice (14th), May Whitford (15th),

We pray through Christ who has called us to himself and will rise us up to eternal life.
