The Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity

10am - Sung Eucharist

Sunday 8 September 2024

Fr Tim Pilkington

Collect:

God, who in generous mercy sent the Holy Spirit upon your Church in the burning fire of your love: grant that your people may be fervent in the fellowship of the gospel that, always abiding in you, they may be found steadfast in faith and active in service; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Say to those who are of a fearful heart, "Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you."

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be opened;

then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness and streams in the desert;

the burning sand shall become a pool and the thirsty ground springs of water.

A reading from the epistle of James

My brothers and sisters, do not claim the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory while showing partiality.

For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Have a seat here in a good place, please," while to the one who is poor you say, "Stand there," or, "Sit by my footstool," have you not made distinctions among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him?

But you have dishonoured the poor person. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court?

Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you?

If you really fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbour as yourself," you do well.

But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it.

For the one who said, "You shall not commit adultery," also said, "You shall not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery but if you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.

So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty. For judgment will be without mercy to anyone who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but does not have works? Surely that faith cannot save, can it?

If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food and one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill," and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that?

So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

The Gospel: Mark

From there he set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet.

Now the woman was a gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter.

He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs."

But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."

Then he said to her, "For saying that, you may go--the demon has left your daughter." And when she went home, she found the child lying on the bed and the demon gone.

Then he returned from the region of Tyre and went by way of Sidon toward the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis.

They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech, and they begged him to lay his hand on him.

He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue.

Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly.

Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one, but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it.

They were astounded beyond measure, saying, "He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Post Communion Prayer:

Keep, O Lord, your Church, with your perpetual mercy; and, because without you our human frailty cannot but fall, keep us ever by your help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

We call upon you to show mercy to the people Israel and Palestine and protect them.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

DIOCESAN SYNOD

Lord God, We pray for the new members of the Diocesan Synod ahead of their first Diocesan Synod meeting. We thank God for all of the members who give of their time willingly to serve the diocese in this way. May God bless and guide them in all their discussions and decision-making as they seek to represent us all in these times of change. Amen.

15th Sunday after Trinity Season of Creation: The Church of the Province of Myanmar (Burma)

Prayers for 15th Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray to God whose love embraces all that he has made.

Grant to your whole Church, grace to show true faith through works of love and mercy... Take away all prejudice that causes unequal treatment... May the places where your name is honoured be always open and welcoming to all who come.

Have compassion on a world where rich and poor are separated by selfishness and lack of understanding... Inspire those who are rich in this world's goods to respond to the necessity of individuals and nations... Bless all who work for the relief of poverty.

We pray that we, our families and friends, may have ears open to hear your word... and tongues eager to make it known... Make us sensitive to discern the needs in our community and generous to relieve them.

We pray for the sick, especially sick children and those who grieve for them... Have mercy on those who are afflicted in speech or hearing, and restore them to full power. We pray especially for: Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Joan Whitford, and young Lilly.

We pray for the departed, we remember those who suffered from any impairment of faculties in this life, and are now made perfect in your love... We pray too for those whose hearts were hard, that they may be pardoned through the saving mercy of Christ.

We remember those with anniversaries that fall at this time, especially: Dorothy Besanko, Merryn Jeffery, Albert Sheppard (8th), Dennis Carter (9th), Ronald Pope (10th).

That we may be worthy to receive the true bread, we pray in the name of Christ.
