The Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity

10am - Sung Eucharist

Sunday 15 September 2024

Fr Tim Pilkington

Collect:

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to hear the prayers of your people who call upon you; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil them; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The Lord GOD has given me a trained tongue, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens, wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.

The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious; I did not turn backward.

I gave my back to those who struck me and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

The Lord GOD helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame;

he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand in court together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me.

It is the Lord GOD who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

A reading from the epistle of James

Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will face stricter judgment.

For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is mature, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle.

If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies.

Or look at ships: though they are so large and are driven by strong winds, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs.

So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits. How great a forest is set ablaze by such a small fire!

And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of life, and is itself set on fire by hell.

For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species, but no one can tame the tongue--a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse people made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth comes a blessing and a cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so.

Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water?

Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

The Gospel: Mark

Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi, and on the way he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?"

And they answered him, "John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets."

He asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered him, "You are the Messiah."

And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him. Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes and be killed and after three days rise again.

He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things."

He called the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "If any wish to come after me, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.

For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it.

For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life?

Indeed, what can they give in return for their life?

Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Post Communion Prayer:

Almighty God, you have taught us through your Son that love is the fulfilling of the law: grant that we may love you with our whole heart and our neighbours as ourselves; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Anglican Communion:

16th Sunday after Trinity Season of Creation - The Church of Nigeria
(Anglican Communion)

Prayers for 16th Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray to the Father, who has called us to follow Christ in all things.

Empower your Church to follow Christ in all things, courageous to face the hard demands of the Gospel... Keep your people from idle gossip and evil speaking, that the purity of their witness shall not be corrupted.

Fill with the love of truth those who influence the minds of others... Give to journalists and broadcasters the desire to make known the good as well as the bad, and to avoid anything that can mislead the innocent.

We pray for all who are suffering from slander and false accusations... For those unjustly accused through malice or error... Give courage to those who are called to witness to their faith in peril and persecution.

Guard our speaking as we meet with others... Shield us in our families in our relationships from hasty words and disregard of truth.

We pray for the sick, especially:

Joan Wood, Maria Strachan, Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare,
Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Joan Whitford, and young Lilly.

We pray that the souls of the departed who loved this world too much may be pardoned in the Kingdom where true joys are to be found... May no evil report harm the memory of those who are at rest.

We remember those with anniversaries that fall at this time; especially Barbara Dalmata (11th), Beryl Welburn, Kathy Hill (15th),
Doris Webber (16th), Kate Richards,
Kenneth Julian, Derek Goodman (18th), Ethel Grosvenor (20th) and Peter Binkley (21st).

As those who trust in Christ, the true
Messiah, we pray in his name.
