Second Sunday of Epiphany

10am - Holy Communion
by Extension
Sunday 19 January 2025

Collect:

Almighty God,
in Christ you make all things new:
transform the poverty of our nature by the riches of your grace, and in the renewal of our lives make known your heavenly glory; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn and her salvation like a burning torch.

The nations shall see your vindication and all the kings your glory, and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will give.

You shall be a beautiful crown in the hand of the LORD and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate, but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her and your land Married, for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married.

For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be ignorant.

You know that when you were gentiles, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak.

Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts but the same Spirit, and there are varieties of services but the same Lord, and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone.

To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of power deeds, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

The Gospel: John

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.

When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to me and to you? My hour has not yet come."

His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.

Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the person in charge of the banquet." So they took it.

When the person in charge tasted the water that had become wine and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), that person called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now."

Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee and revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him

Post Communion Prayer:

God of glory,
you nourish us with your Word who is the bread of life: fill us with your Holy Spirit that through us the light of your glory may shine in all the world.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Notice:

Rev'd Geoff Bennett, Rural Dean – (Retirement Plans)

Many have probably been wondering when retirement will happen for Jacqui and I? Indeed, we thought it would be last year or, perhaps, early this year.

Neither have been possible for many reasons but we now find that everything is in place for the end of April, this year.

My last Sunday will be the 27th April of this year. I wanted to give you good notice of our decision. We would value your prayers and of course we shall pray for you all.

It will not of course mean the end of my calling as a priest and preacher. It is, rather, a resting and seeing where God leads in the future.

In the meantime, there is still much to do and pray for, before the end of April.

With every blessing and many thanks for God's favour and blessing to us all.

Prayers for 2nd Sunday in Epiphany

Let us pray to the Lord, the bountiful giver of love and mercy.

Give grace to the Church, to the crown of glory and a sign to the world... Guide your people to discern the special gifts that you have given to each and to use them fully in your service.

Grant that all the skill and wisdom may be rightly used for the advancement of your Kingdom.. Take away human pride, and give understanding that all gifts come from you.

We pray that in our families we may so live that we know you are always among us... Bless all in our community who are recently married or soon to marry, that they may hold together in love and loyalty all their lives.

Have mercy on those who suffer in unhappy marriages, on those who are separated or divorced... Bring healing and reconciliation where marriages are in danger, that love may be restored and promises fulfilled.

We remember in our prayers those suffering in mind, body or spirit; especially:

Joan Wood, Claire Coombes, Jackie Dare, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Joan Whitford, Gill, and young Lilly.

As we pray for the departed, we remember with thanks all that they gave to the life of this world... Grant them joy in the everlasting marriage feast of heaven.

We pray for those with anniversaries at this time; especially:

Bernice Kingdon (20th), Pricilla Baker, Frederick Webber, Phyllis Lawrence (21st), Vera Shoemack (22nd),

We pray in the name of Christ, the mystical Bridegroom of his Church.
Amen.
