Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity Sunday 19th October 10am - Holy Communion by Extension

Collect:

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Book of Genesis

The same night he got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok.

He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak.

When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him.

Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me."

So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed."

Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen

God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.

A reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy

But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you:

proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching.

For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths.

As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

Gospel according to Luke

Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart.

He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people.

In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.'

For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.'

And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them?

I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

Post Communion Prayer:

We praise and thank you, O Christ, for this sacred feast: for here we receive you, here the memory of your passion is renewed, here our minds are filled with grace, and here a pledge of future glory is given, when we shall feast at that table where you reign with all your saints for ever.

ALWAYS PRAY AND NEVER
GIVE UP. Luke 18:1

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders.
We call upon you to show mercy to the people Israel and Palestine and protect them.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.
We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world. For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer: HOSPITAL SUNDAY

Healing God, we lift our hearts in thankfulness for access to healthcare and all who work in hospitals and community settings. Thank you for the volunteers and unseen workers who provide essential support to patients and frontline workers. Anoint the eyes, ears, hands and hearts of doctors, nurses, and caregivers, that you may be visible through their words and actions. Enfold all who are suffering in body, mind, or spirit in your healing love and grant patience to those waiting for treatment or answers. Lead the despairing towards hope, the fearful towards trust, and draw closest to those who need your comfort and reassurance as they face uncertainty or are coming to the end of their earthly lives. All these things we lift to you, through Jesus, our healer and redeemer.

Cornwall NHS Foundation Trust*

Anglican Communion:

18th Sunday after Trinity - The Episcopal Church

Prayers for 18th Sunday after Trinity (Proper 24)

Let us pray to God, the almighty and righteous Judge of the Church and the world.

Preserve your Church from false teaching and keep her firm in the inheritance of faith...Fill your ministers with zeal to preach the Gospel at all times.

Guide those who administer for justice, that they may be honest and merciful in all they do...Give wisdom to all legislators, that law may prevail for the common good.

We pray that the children of our own families and those of our friends and neighbours may be brought up in the knowledge of faith...Bless the teachers who serve the children of this community.

We pray for those who suffer in mind, body or spirit; especially...

Joan Wood, Claire Coombes, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Roderick Dare, Jackie Dare, Joan Whitford, Sharron Simcock, Fr Tim Pilkington Pr. and young Lilly.

Have mercy on those who are caught in legislation and find no solution...Grant them swift and honest judgement and release from their anxiety.

We pray that those who have died may be judged with mercy through the merits of Christ...May the Church on earth and in heaven be united in endless prayer and praise. We remember especially...; especially...

Bill Greenway (22nd), Harrel Ferris (23rd), Frank Ormerod and Drusilla Nichols (25th).

We make our prayers through Christ, whose judgement is ever merciful.
