Last Sunday after Trinity Sunday 26th October

10am – Sung Eucharist

Rev'd Stewart Turner

Collect:

Blessed Lord,

who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Book of Ecclesiasticus

Give to the Most High as he has given to you and as generously as you can afford. For the Lord is the one who repays, and he will repay you sevenfold.

Do not offer him a bribe, for he will not accept it, and do not rely on a dishonest sacrifice, for the Lord is the judge, and with him there is no partiality.

He will not show partiality to the poor, but he will listen to the prayer of one who is wronged.

He will not ignore the supplication of the orphan or the widow when she pours out her complaint.

With the Christmas Bazaar fast approaching on Saturday 29 November, there will be a planning meeting after mass today, to confirm stall holders and arrangements for the day.

A reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come.

I have fought the good fight; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith.

From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them!

But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Gospel according to Luke

He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt:

"Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector.

I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.'

But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!'

I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other, for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Post Communion Prayer:

God of all grace,
your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your true and living bread; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders.

We call upon you to show mercy to the people Israel and Palestine and protect them.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

PRAYER FOR LIGHT IN THE DARKNESS

As the clocks change and the dark evenings draw in, help us Lord Jesus to change our habits and become light in the darkness. Where there is evil, shine such a bright light that it is exposed and extinguished. Be the light that guides us to where you need us to be, so we can be shining lights in our homes and communities. When our light is dim help us to recharge as we spend quiet time with you. In all we do and wherever we go, help us to remember even death could not put out your light. Amen.

Prayers for the Last Sunday after Trinity (Proper 25).

Let us pray to the Lord, who casts down the proud and exalts the humble.

Preserve the Church from false pride. Teach us all to value our calling as by grace and not for our own goodness. May your word be made fully known through the preaching of your chosen ministers.

In a world where people put their trust in themselves and their own works, bring us the humility that is the only offering acceptable to you.... Give the joy of human fellowship to those who in pride set themselves apart from others.

Strengthen us in service to you and to one another... Make us open to all in our community, welcoming those whose lives are different from our own.

Have mercy on the outcasts of the world, who are despised for their social position or way of life... Comfort all who have been forsaken by those whom they trusted.

We pray for those who suffer in mind, body or spirit; especially...

Joan Wood, Claire Coombes, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Roderick Dare, Jackie Dare, Joan Whitford, Sharron Simcock, and young Lilly.

We give thanks for those who have fought the good fight and are now at rest.... Grant them the crown of righteousness prepared for those who have loved you to the end.

We pray for the soul of Richard Pond recently departed this life and remember the names of the faithful departed, especially...

Harry Richards, James McGee (26th), Charles Ball (27th), Bella Andrew (28th), Rose Ingram (31st), Jessie Ledgeston (1st November),

We pray through Christ for mercy on our sins and on all sinners. Amen.
